

INDEX

Introduction . . . . .	9
-------------------------------	---

Acronyms and abbreviations . . . . .	12
---	----

FIRST UNIT

THE "LEX ORANDI" OF THE CHURCH

1.1 Why this beginning? . . . . .	13
1.2 The lesson of Cipriano Vagaggini . . . . .	13
1.3 The thinking of the Magisterium . . . . .	13
1.4 The " locus liturgicus " of theology . . . . .	14
1.5 The temporal framework of the liturgical actions . . . . .	14
1.6 The centre given by the Eucharistic Celebration . . . . .	15
1.7 The other traces of the Trinitarian mystery . . . . .	18
1.8 The Traditio Apostolica . . . . .	19
1.9 The Holy Scriptures . . . . .	19
1.10 The teaching of Vatican II . . . . .	19
1.11 The patristic procedure . . . . .	20
1.12 Tradition Scripture and Magisterium . . . . .	20
1.13 The unity of the two Testaments . . . . .	21
1.14 The life of the believers . . . . .	21
1.15 First attempts to "theologize" the mystery of God . . . . .	22
1.16 The method of the " oikonomia ad extra ". . . . .	25

SECOND UNIT

THE OLD TESTAMENT SEEN THROUGH A CHRISTIAN PERSPECTIVE

2.1 The five "signs" suggested by Professor Coda . . . . .	27
a) The approach of the Patriarchs . . . . .	32
b) The approach of the Mosaic revelation . . . . .	33
c) The approach of the prophets . . . . .	34
d) The approach of the wise . . . . .	34
e) The approach of the apocalyptic . . . . .	35
2.2 The five areas of Prof. Schulte . . . . .	36
a) The paternity of God . . . . .	36
b) The Word of God . . . . .	38
c) The Wisdom of God . . . . .	42
d) The Spirit of God . . . . .	46
e) The "angel of God" . . . . .	47
2.3 The scene of the apparition of the three angels . . . . .	49
2.4 Excursus on the "spirit of God" in the OT . . . . .	50

■ INDEX

Reflections on the Mystery of God in the OT
I	Analysis of a classical page: Ex 3: 1-15 . . . . .	54
	a) First part (Ex 3: 1-6) . . . . .	54
	b) Second part (Ex 3: 7-12) . . . . .	55
	c) Third Part (Ex 3: 13-15) . . . . .	56
II	a) The fundamental fact . . . . .	58
	b) The juridical covenant and the blood covenant . . . . .	58
	c) The Creator, the Lord, the Holy One . . . . .	59
III	a) When one spoke of God the Father in Israel . . . . .	60
	b) The dabār of the Jewish tradition . . . . .	61
	c) Wisdom in Israel . . . . .	62
	d) The Ruah Adonai . . . . .	63
	e) The Angel of God . . . . .	63
 THIRD UNIT
THE APPROACH TO THE MYSTERY OF GOD IN THE NEW TESTAMENT
3.1	A premise . . . . .	65
3.2	Elements for theological reflection . . . . .	68
3.3	Mark's method . . . . .	69
3.4	Matthew's method . . . . .	75
3.4.1	One of Matthew's "Trinitarian" texts: Mt 11: 25-27 . . . . .	81
3.5	Luke's method . . . . .	83
3.5.1	The synoptic event of transfiguration and Jesus' identity . . . . .	87
3.6	John's method . . . . .	92
3.6.1	John's Prologue . . . . .	92
3.6.2	The "egō eimi" of the Gospel according to John . . . . .	96
3.6.3	The relationship "Son", "Spirit", "Father" in John's Gospel . . . . .	100
3.7	Paul's method . . . . .	102
3.8	An attempt at synthesis . . . . .	106
3.8.1	The Synoptic method . . . . .	107
3.8.2	John's method . . . . .	109
3.8.3	Paul's perspective . . . . .	110
3.8.4	Reflections on the Mystery of God and Trinity in the NT . . . . .	111
 Excursus
	The hour of the Covenant in the NT (Jn 2: 1-12) . . . . .	114
 FOURTH UNIT
FIRST HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTS OF TRINITARIAN THEOLOGY
4.1	Permanent theological questions . . . . .	119
4.2	The first steps of theological reflection and the Ebionite heresy . . . . .	125
4.3	Between "angelomorphic Christology" and "Christ Logos" . . . . .	126
4.4	The Imago Trinitatis and the Church of the First Fathers . . . . .	127
4.5	Some early acquisitions . . . . .	131
4.6	The Trinitarian mystery and the "God-Logos" theological frame . . . . .	132
4.6.1	Introduction . . . . .	132
4.6.2	Aspects of the thought of the former Apologists . . . . .	132
4.7	Theories deemed "heretical" and the thought of the later Apologists . . . . .	137
4.7.1	Premise . . . . .	137

4.7.2	Theories deemed “heretical” . . . . .	137
4.7.3	Replies by the later Apologists . . . . .	138
4.8	The reflection on the Trinitarian mystery in the East and West . . . . .	140
4.8.1	Premise . . . . .	140
4.8.2	Origen . . . . .	142
4.8.3	Dionysius of Rome and Dionysius of Alexandria and the appearance of “ousia” . . . . .	143
4.8.4	Paul of Samosata and his pupil Arius. . . . .	144

FIFTH UNIT

TRIADOLOGY AND THE ARIAN CRISIS OF THE 4th CENTURY

5.1	Premise . . . . .	147
5.2	Arius’ position . . . . .	149
5.3	Alexander’s clarification . . . . .	150
5.4	Marcellus of Ancyra’s clarification . . . . .	151
5.5	Some theories on Eustathius of Antioch . . . . .	152
5.6	Advancements and limits of the abovementioned Fathers . . . . .	152
5.7	Creed of the Council of Nicaea . . . . .	153
5.8	The Council’s troubled reception . . . . .	156
5.9	Radical Arianism and the reaction of the orthodox bishops . . . . .	158
5.9.1	The debate on the Holy Spirit . . . . .	161
5.10	The mystery of the Holy Trinity . . . . .	164
5.10.1	Premise . . . . .	164
5.10.2	The winning formula . . . . .	168
5.10.3	The additions of the First Council of Constantinople (381) . . . . .	169

SIXTH UNIT

THE DEVELOPMENT OF REFLECTION ON THE TRINITY IN THE WEST

6.1	“Heterodox” doctrines . . . . .	171
6.2	Replies of the “orthodox” polemicists in the West . . . . .	172

SEVENTH UNIT

AUGUSTINE OF HIPPO AND HIS *DE TRINITATE

7.1	Premise . . . . .	183
7.2	Augustine’s method. . . . .	184
7.3	The framework of the opus . . . . .	185
7.4	Theological content . . . . .	185
7.5	Manuductio by A. Trapè in the interpretation of the “De Trinitate” . . . . .	186
7.5.1	Books I-V: unity and equality of the Trinity according to the Scriptures . . . . .	186
7.5.2	Books V-VII. . . . . .	188
	First part: the doctrine of relations . . . . .	188
a)	Divine relations . . . . .	188
b)	The processions . . . . .	189
c)	The given names . . . . .	190
	Second part: formulation of the dogma . . . . .	191
a)	The three Rules . . . . .	192
b)	The problem . . . . .	192
c)	The Augustinian concept of “person” . . . . .	193
d)	Conclusion . . . . .	195

■ INDEX

7.5.3 The introduction of Book VIII and the illustration of the dogma in the Books IX-XV . . . . .	195
a) Man, the image of God . . . . .	195
b) Man, the image of God-Trinity . . . . .	197
c) Similar and dissimilar image . . . . .	198
d) Difference between generation and procession . . . . .	199
e) Conclusion . . . . .	200
Notes for a general conclusion . . . . .	203
Appendix
To remember . . . . .	211
Latin/English expressions by Augustine . . . . .	211
Augustine's rules on Trinity . . . . .	213
Bibliography . . . . .	217
Biblical Index . . . . .	223
Index of names . . . . .	229